

Regional New South Wales

Day 1 - Sydney to Orange

Departing Bankstown Airport this morning, fly over the stunning Blue Mountains enroute to Orange. World renowned for its gourmet wineries and award-winning restaurants, rolling countryside and heritage towns and villages. On arrival, check into your boutique accommodation where you have some time at leisure to freshen up and explore the town. This evening, set off to Printhe Wines, a family-owned premium award-winning cool-climate vineyard and a 5 star rated Halliday winery and cellar door. Here you will have an exclusive meet-the-maker experience where you will learn about the history and style of wine produced in this area.

As the sunsets, get comfortable as you sip on Swift Sparkling which is made from the highest vineyards in New South Wales on the slopes of the extinct volcano Mt Canobolas. Acclaimed by Australia's Champagne expert, Tyson Stelzer, as 'the best sparkling wine brand in New South Wales and inducted into his Sparkling Hall of Fame in 2016. Currently, it's the best sparkling in New South Wales having been awarded Best Sparkling at the New South Wales Wine awards for the last two years running. As the sky changes colour and the bubbles flow, you will also have fresh oysters to slurp as you embrace the beauty of this region.

2 nights Byng Street Boutique Hotel or similar

Day 2 - Orange

Today is all about following your tastebuds. Your day will be a combination of exclusive winery experiences and encounters with the wine makers themselves as well as produce trail as you eat your way through farm gate visits sampling some of the finest food and wine in the region.

Dinner this evening is an exciting fusion of Italian cuisine and Australia bush tucker. It may sound odd, however, both cultures work with what the land has to offer making it an incredible experience.

You will be joined by our local Indigenous guide who will share stories with you about dreamtime stories, politics and colonisation in the region. Imagine dishes like Braised Wallaby Shanks marinated in saltbush and native pepperberry, cooked with bush tomato and some truffle infused local honey... or perhaps roasted wattleseed and macadamia waffles with Lilli Pilli cream and poached quandong. Your mind will boggle at the unique flavours. Following dinner, with full belly's and a wealth of fascinating knowledge, return to your hotel.

Day 3 - Fly to Corynnia Station

This morning following breakfast, transfer to the airport for your private flight to Corynnia Station for a true Aussie outback experience. Corynnia Station is a 17,000 acre busy working property showcasing its unique, historic and truly Australian part of the world. Producing high quality Merino wool and meat from a flock of up to 11,000. The stations irrigated cropping programme includes cotton, grains and sheep fodder, all using technologically advanced methods.

Your time here will be warmed by campfires and hearty meals. Feeling active? Tennis (balls and racquets are provided), take a dip in the pool, play croquet or enjoy nature walks. The station is incredible for bird watching, native wildlife and amazing huge skies. The sunsets are magical and the night sky will blanket you with a trillion stars.

2 nights Corynnia Station

Day 4 - Farm Tour

Keen to see what happens on a busy station? Today you take a farm experience tour with your hosts. Bruce's passion is agriculture and Corynnia Station is a large farm producing irrigated crops and a quality merino sheep flock for wool and meat. Bruce's farm tour will take you to parts of the 17,000 acre busy working station, where you will learn a little about the technologically advanced farming practices in growing the worlds best quality and highest yielding rice, cotton, rye grass and wool. Discover the benefits of planting genetically modified seed. See the historical 1920's and 1940's shearing shed, still in use today.

Day 5 - Fly to South Coast

Farewell your hosts this morning as you fly off towards the New South Wales coastline. Upon landing at Shellharbour airport, you will be met and transferred to one of the last working farms skimming the coastline of Gerringong. Your home for the next two nights is Ocean Farm - a secluded hideaway nestled amongst the rolling hills of the South Coast.

Boasting absolute privacy, panoramic ocean views and breathtaking scenery, Ocean Farm is the ultimate destination to experience luxury amidst untouched landscape. Embrace the large comfortable bedrooms, a well-equipped kitchen, open log fireplace, infinity pool, entertainment room, and an all-encompassing deck featuring sweeping coastal views.

Guests can walk the grass track for a long lunch or quick dip at Gerringong's Warri Beach, swim and laze on the deck, sip wine in front of the fire, breathe the clean country air, or simply just unwind in bed. The property is set in it's own pocket of rainforest hidden from neighbouring homes and home to free range cattle and horses for petting.

2 nights Ocean Farm

Day 6 - Explore Kangaroo Valley

This morning, set off for a scenic drive into the beautiful Kangaroo Valley. Kangaroo Valley is a rural idyll and the original home of the Wodi Wodi group of the Dharawal people, but today exudes a verdant beauty with a valley littered with farms, vineyards and a quaint township which evokes a glimpse of the past.

Your day begins with our signature Canoes, Champagne and Canapés adventure. Immerse your senses in the sheer beauty of this magical waterway with its ancient sunken forest and indulge your taste buds with wild native canapés and a local award-winning cold-climate wine. You are then transferred to our lunch venue either for a 2-course meal. Enjoy authentic paddock to plate dishes from chefs you source and support local producers. Continue on to Cherry Tree Hill Winery for a tasting before you venture further south along New South Wales beautiful coastline and learn more about the connection of the land to the nation's First People.

Return to Gerringong this afternoon where you will have time at leisure to explore the town and beaches before returning to your accommodation.

Day 7 - Departure

This morning following breakfast, it is time to transfer back to the airport for your private flight back to Bankstown.
